

Hijab

By:Aliyya Rashid

What is Hijab?

- Hijab literally means a cover, curtain or screen.
- The Muslims use the word “Hijab” to mean the headdress and overall clothing of Muslim women; it is like a uniform for Muslim women

The Command of God: Hijab in Quran (the holy book of Muslims)

- “O Prophet! Say to your wives, your daughters, and women of the believers that:they should let down upon themselves their jalabib.”
- Jalabib or jilbab means a loose outer garment (clothing).
- Hijab provides me protection like other things in nature; for example fruits such as bananas, oranges have a outer covering that protects them

Clothes you wear cover your whole body.

- You would wear a long sleeve shirt and pants and a head scarf of course.
- Like these ones here.

Hijab does not only mean covering your head and body

- It means that you also protect and cover your eyes from bad things; your tongue from speaking bad things; your ears from listening to bad things; your hands from doing bad things; your feet going to bad places; and your heart from feeling bad things

Why do I wear Hijab?

- If a Muslim girl or lady wears hijab she has to feel it from the bottom of her heart not because someone told her to.
- I feel it from the bottom of my heart that is why I wear hijab.

Other women wear Hijab too

- Nuns wear hijab

Other women wear Hijab too

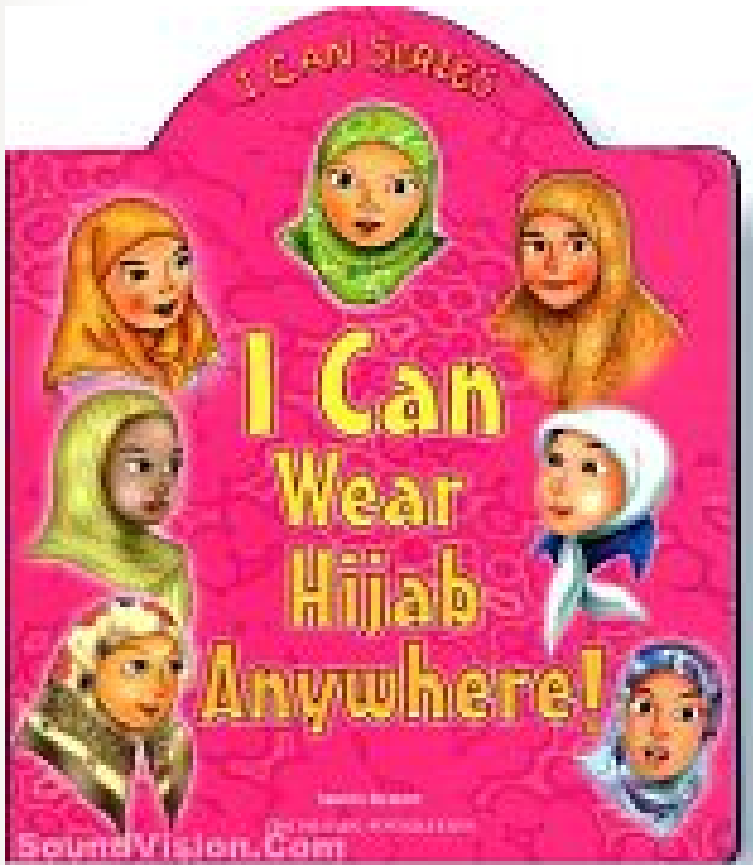

- Sikh women wearing head covering too

Other women wear Hijab too

- Hindu women

Hijab can be fun

- Hijab does not have to be boring.
- Hijab comes in different colours.
- Hijab can be worn in different styles.
