KHP MESSAGE

KHOJA SENIORS FROM ACROSS THE GLOBE IN SEARCH OF THEIR ROOTS

In the name of Allah, the All-Beneficent, the Ever Merciful

The historic Khoja Heritage Tour was undeniably a very inspiring event by of the World Federation and its regional members. With a deep yearning for 'connecting with the roots', a group of committed elderly khoja men and women from across the globe embarked on a journey to venture into the lands where our forefathers once used to walk. The land had an instant aura of 'homeness' from the palpable joy and sense of belonging felt by the participants.

They neither acted as tourists nor were they were treated as visitors. One should have been there to witness how community members engaged with each other, irrespective of where he or she was from Lalpur or London, Bhuj or Boston. Trying to fathom their compassionate attitude, one may conclude that it was the profound 'sense of one community' which tied them together. Amazingly, family relations, languages, family names etc. were all eclipsed by an overwhelming feeling of the global 'Khoja Community'. This is indeed the power of our social capital the world over, which make the Khoja Community so unique.

This exciting 10-days 12-city Tour, provided a glimpse of the genesis of the Khoja Community, which dates to the late fourteenth century in the desert of Sind, and our conversion by a missionary named Pir Sadruddin, who arrived to live among them. To fit into the neatly organised Gujarati Society based on trade or vocations, our ancestors needed to have a new identity. They could no longer be called Thakkars.

Pir Sadruddin obliged and gave them the title of Khwaja, which morphed into the term Khoja. Over a period, several Pirs came after Sadruddin such as Pir Gulamali Shah and Pir Dadu whose shrines were visited in Kera and Bhuj respectively. Gradually, the beliefs of the pluralistic Satpanthi faith crystallised into Ismaili, Ithna Asheri and Sunni strands.

In the wake of the turmoil of the late 19th century as the Khoja Community tried to define its beliefs, the likes of Nur Muhammad Meghji, Hasham Dosa and Dewji Jamal visited Ayatullah Zayn al-Abedeen Mazandarani in Karbala through the guidance of an Indian student in Karbala by the name of Mulla Qadar Husayn, soon to join Dewji Jamal in India to promulgate the teachings of Ithna Asheri faith amongst Khojas of Mumbai. Thus, began this journey of the nascent Khoja Shia Ithna Asheri Community, as it contained its faith in the crucible of Khoja culture. Our visit to Mulla Qadar Madrasa was in fact to pay tribute to this great personality in the history of KSI Community.

The Khoja Heritage tour highlighted the contribution of many key personalities who helped shape us as a community. During the course of the tour, we paid tribute to Lalji Sajan and Hirji Alarakhia, two innocent souls who gave their lives for what they believed, in Mumbai. We also got chance to reflect on the immense contribution of the great religious author Allama Haji Naji the prolific author of the Khoja History, Edalji Dhanji Kaba as we visited their graves in Bhavnagar and Amreli respectively.

History serves as a model of who we are and what we are to be, as well as to know what to strive for and what to avoid. The Khoja Heritage Project team passionately believes that a concerted effort to preserve our heritage is a critical link to our faith and cultural legacy. It must never be forgotten that the Community is what it is today, largely because of an integrative locus of Khoja heritage and Islamic faith as per the teachings of Ahlulbayt (as). The two are far from being mutually exclusive.

We sincerely thank each and every one who assisted us in accomplishing this milestone in the history of KSI Community.

PARTICIPANTS' TESTIMONIALS

Mandvi jamaat is very small yet they have preserved their religion living amongst the Hindus since so many years. I was filled with utmost happiness to see all this, to talk to all these people, to go to their houses and see their way of living. We came to know from these people that we who migrated to others states indeed; have our roots here.

Shakila Nourah Saleh

For me, it's quite surprising to have this kind of a travel and this kind of trip because it's uncommon to have the occasion to deep dive into your past history.

Mohammed Hirdjee Djina

In this trip for me, so far, I've seen is that I love the leaders, the helpers, you know, they accommodate you. I know I have a problem with my leg and I am walking slowly. But I can't see a face that they pull to say, "oh dear, she's slow". No. They say, "Let her take her time". And you can feel it. They are full of help. And that's what I can go back and say to people that it's okay if you got a bad arm or a bad leg. Go for it. Because they are there to help you.

MANAGING COMMITTEE

KUMAIL RAJANI

The lands of Kathiawad and Kutch have an aura of the spiritual teachings of the early Satpanthi peers. I could sit for hours at Peer Gulam Ali Shah's Dargah in Kera contemplating on the perilous journey of the mountains of Sind and the deserts of Kutch. The tour has encouraged me to revisit some of my assumptions about style, structure and content of preaching the message of Qur'an and Ahlulbayt (as).

ASAD VIRANI

The Khoja Heritage Tour has highlighted the importance of the need of recognition of those personalities who have sacrificed a great many things for our Khoja Community. Physically walking on the streets once walked by our ancestors gave me a nostalgic feeling and an experience of a life time.

SHABNAM MERCHANT

The Khoja Heritage Tour helped me gather pearls of wisdom whilst serving the elders of our community and also gain perspective on Khoja ancestry whilst actually visiting those places where our ancestors attained enlightenment. I'm filled with gratitude and respect for all those who have spent their lives in leading and guiding the Khoja community and also those who have taken efforts in preserving its rich heritage.
