

Sponsored Readathon 2015

Dear Parent/Guardian,
Salaam Alaikum,

Once again this year, the World Federation are holding a Children Help Children Campaign – a scheme which encourages children to raise money for other children in need.

Buzz Ideazz and the Children's Islamic Library have teamed up with them to help give your children something to do for this worthy cause! Following on the success of the last Sponsored Readathon, we would like to launch a Sponsored Readathon for 2015 – promote the habit of reading, a love of Islam, and raise money for a good cause, all at the same time!

The Sponsored Readathon will take place from Ramadhan 2015 to the 31st of August, 2015 and all the money raised will go towards the Ramadhan Relief Fund (Leaflet attached).

We ask you to support our Sponsored Readathon by helping your child spend a small amount of time each day either reading to themselves, to others, or being read to. They can read books, comics, magazines, poems, leaflets, articles, and newspapers – anything with words that have something to do with Islam. Children of all ages can take part! Alhamdulillah, the Children's Islamic Library in the UK has a wide range of material for all ages, including teenagers.

A sponsorship form is attached should you wish (Inshallah!) to support the Sponsored Readathon. Also attached is a reading log to record the number of items they have read. To register, please follow the instructions on the leaflet. All participants will receive a token of appreciation for having taken part.

Jazakallah and let's look forward to a summer of reading and fundraising!
